REQUIRED MEMBERSHIP DUTIES:

FCT Members are expected to maintain respect for the organization, its constitution, and the building. We ask that our members participate in as many productions as possible, from low level participation such as ushering to high level such as acting or directing. You are also encouraged to participate in one or two committees, attend social functions, help with building maintenance such as pre-production cleanings, and promote FCT and its works through your conversations, tickets sales, and invitations, and encourage others to attend our productions and join our organization. FCT conducts four membership meetings per year. Members are asked to attend and contribute through discussion, research, and voting.
