

Fremont Community Theatre Scholarship Application and Requirements for the 2017-2018 Academic Year

FCT will be awarding from one to three scholarships this year, depending on the number of applications received, and valued at up to $1000. To be eligible for the FCT college scholarship, a student must meet the following criteria:

1. Student must be accepted into an accredited post-secondary program for the 2017-2018 school year.
2. Student must be an active member in good standing of Fremont Community Teen Theatre.
3. Student must not have received the Fremont Community Theatre Scholarship in a previous school year.
4. Student must complete the Fremont Community Theatre Application for College Scholarship.
5. Student must enclose a transcript from the last four years of education.
6. Student must enclose a theatrical resume, including the following information for each show: role or tech position held, show name, and theatre name and address.
7. Student must provide two sealed letters of recommendation: one from a teacher, drama director, or other person in the education field, and one from a non-family person directly involved in Fremont Community Theatre who is familiar with your involvement.
8. Student must submit a paper answering the following and limiting the response for all three questions to one typewritten page:
 - a. What are your future goals for involving theatre, including community theatre, in your life?
 - b. How will your education enable you to reach these goals?
 - c. If your major is not theatre-related, how will you use your major to benefit community theatre?

Please provide all information by April 30th, 2017 to:
