Member Duties, Requirements, and Expectations:

FCT Members are expected to behave in a manner that represents FCT and its purpose. All members should be respectful of the board, other members, and any other volunteers of this theater, maintain a friendly and welcoming atmosphere, and be supportive and kind to all to create a culture of respect where everyone feels safe, valued, and appreciated.

We invite our members be active participants in our theater: participate in as many productions as possible, from ushering to acting or directing, participate in one or two committees, attend social functions, help with building maintenance such as pre-production cleanings, and promote FCT and its works through your conversations, tickets sales, invitations, and encouragement to others to attend our productions and join our organization. Additionally, FCT conducts four membership meetings per year; members are asked to attend and contribute through discussion, research, and voting.

Membership is a great way to be involved in the theater, and in return the theater needs your support. Please return this completed form to Fremont Community Theatre- attention: Membership. It may also be emailed to membership@fremontcommunitytheatre.org. The membership fee ($10 per person) can be paid in person at any of our events, with a check through the mail (P.O. Box 24, Fremont, OH 43420), or through the PayPal link found under Membership on our website (Fremontcommunitytheatre.org).
